

QUESTION YOUR BELIEFS ABOUT SEMINARY.

If you think of seminaries as conservative, traditional, close-minded places to study for ministry, we invite you to encounter United.

“All Excited” - Photo by United theology and the arts student Lisa Myers

UNITED IS...

OPEN AND AFFIRMING

We practice radical hospitality. Our multifaith community is home to people from many different denominations and faith traditions. We also welcome those who identify as LGBTQIA2S+.

NON-DOGMATIC

We give you the tools and space to think for yourself. You won't be taught what to think. You'll be taught to ask questions that help develop your own line of thinking, and you'll be encouraged to enter into dialogue with people from other faith backgrounds.

A PLACE THAT SHAPES YOU FOR THE REAL WORLD

Yes, you can come here to pursue an M.Div. that prepares you for ministry in a church. But you can also pursue other paths through our M.A., M.A.L. (Master of Arts in Leadership), M.Div., and D.Min programs:

- Enhance worship, ministry, and justice work with spiritually-informed art.
- Develop the skills you need to effectively advocate for social justice.
- Increase your capacity to minister as a chaplain in a multifaith world.
- Become a compassionate and dynamic nonprofit leader or social entrepreneur.

UNITED
THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
OF THE TWIN CITIES

Education for Transformation

Learn more at www.unitedseminary.edu